

Hussain Al Jassmi - Boshret Kheir

Hussain Al Jassmi - Good Blessing

This is an easy task, and you will do it

To the world you will speak out

And take an oath to make it better

you have been quiet for too long

What did Egypt gain from your silence

Do not you voice

Tomorrow, you will write it under your own conditions

this is a good tiding

Go call out for the 'habibi' (from upper Egypt) and your nephew from 'Port Said' and the youth from 'Alexandria' for this is a gathering of men

And I will come with those from 'Sohag' and 'Qina' and 'Sinai' and ' who are the best of the best

No need to double check on the people from Suez, everything is now jumbled together

And the people from 'Al Ismailiyyah' who have been through a lot

Talk to me about the people from the East, and together we are stronger

And together we are stronger

And our hope is high

This is an easy task, and you will do it

To the world you will speak out

And take an oath to make it better

you have been quiet for too long

The people from Menouf, or Damyat

Those people are closer to me than my brothers

They are all family and friends go call out for them

And the thing that stands out most
Is for us to see our beloved ones from Giza Oh greetings with a thousand paces towards the people
